

MATRIARCHY

ANOTHER PARTY FOR THE LADIES

Friday Oct 1, 9pm-2am at The RACK Room. $10 entry.

Due to positive feedback, we are doing a repeat of this event. If you were one of the few who were not able to attend the first Matriarchy, here is another opportunity to attend.

Women: All women are welcome regardless of orientation. Switches, subs, Dommies, etc. This event is trans-friendly. There is no dress code for the women. We will have some snacks, but we encourage you to bring a dish to share if you wish. There will be a separate snack area for the males, but you may share from the female snack area with your male guest (assuming you bring one) if you choose. If you are bringing a male in your service, please consider volunteering them for a limited time (or more if you feel they need something to do) to assist with the party.

Men: Males may attend only as an invited guest of a female attendee and will be considered in service to the female who guested them in. Males should be in the submissive role for this event regardless of their normal orientation. Males of any orientation are welcome but they may only assume the bottom, sub, or slave role for this event. It is also suggested, but not mandatory, that Males be volunteered for some service duties, such as the food area, cleaning, trash etc. to help the party run smoothly for the female attendees, since it is their party. There will be a segregated area for snacks for males. The rest of the snack area is primarily for the women. You may only be granted access to the rest of the food if you are getting it for a female, or the female you attended with gives you permission.

If you are male, this may not seem like a fair party for you. You would be correct for coming to that conclusion. This is not your party and this is not about you. You are considered in service to the female attendee who guested you in and your job is to make her feel comfortable and ensure she has a good time. Please be respectful to all attendees, especially the females.

Furniture: All furniture is meant for the women. Males are expected to not use furniture without permission of the female who guested them in. We understand that there may be health reasons that necessitate the use of furniture though, and if this is the case for any male, they will not be expected to adhere to this rule.

Drinks: Water will be freely available to male attendees. All other beverages are for the female attendees. If the woman who guested you in decides you can have something other than water, then she may grant permission.

Dress code: It is suggested, but not mandatory, that male guests wear something to show their submissive status for the evening. Collars, restraints, sissy attire and even banana hammocks (inside joke). There is a changing area at the RACK Room. Please be considerate of our neighbors in the area and enter and leave in street clothing.
